

Charities thank crematorium for donations

GENEROUS visitors to Woking Crematorium at St John's have donated £10,000 during the past year and last week donations were presented to representatives of 10 charities.

Representing the charities were Marcella Edbrook, Mary Campbell and guide dog Newton of St John's Guild for the Blind, Ken and Wendy Clarke of the Salvation Army, Mike Hardman and Veronica Thomas of Victim Support Scheme, George and Lyn Croft of Parkinson's Disease Society.

Rob Green and Bob Gale of Foadpeace, William and Hazel Blunt of Cancer Research UK, Judy Mark of Macmillan Cancer Relief, Alison Lane and Sue Roberts of Face the Future, Carol Marshall and P Acheson of British Heart Foundation and Julie Beames of Sue Ryder Care were present.

The crematorium has had a charity plate in its chapel since 1991 and, including this year's sum, has raised £130,000.

Woking Crematorium staff Chris Roberts and Kathy Reynolds hosted a tea party to present donations to charity representatives.
